THAT WONDER

FUL YEAR 1960

The Confusing First Days

First days of school are always confusing to everyone. This year with the largest freshman class in the history of Lincoln High and many new faculty members, some students, teachers, and days were really mixed-up. However, after the first trying week, freshmen were able to be on the right floor each hour and usually in class on time, and teachers had become adjusted to the routine of a new school year.

Selling books on the first day is Lyman Lance, a new teacher in the science department.

Brenda Bailey, a freshman, ponders the mess in her locker while debating which books she will take home.

Right 10 . . . left 23 . . . right 37. Or was it right 8 . . . left 17 . . . right 39?

Back To Class Routine

Linda Dale and Rita Finke are seriously working on a complicated experiment while Jack McClure finds it amusing. Terry McClone in background watches dubiously.

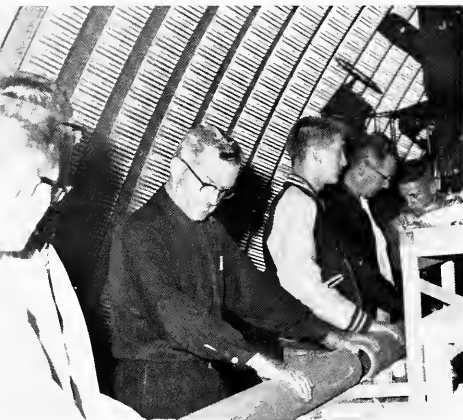

Home economics is really an interesting as well as delicious subject. For further information ask Rita Page and Karen Parker.

All eyes are on Susan Veits as she performs on trampoline.

We Created Floats For The

Mr. Finke and seniors work hard to put together their last float.

Sophomores put last minute touches on their float.

Juniors made "stuffing napkins" look like an everyday job.

Seniors are working on their "bird".

Parade

Colorful floats, high-stepping bands, charming girls, enthusiasm pitched to a high degree, and a high-ranked gridiron team . . . these appeared to the graduate of Lincoln as he returned for the homecoming celebration. What he did not see, however, was the work and time put in on both preparation of the team and parade. After many hours of work on floats and weeks of training by the football team, both came through in fine style as the parade was successful and the Alices beat Wiley 19-14.

Joan Gilliatt and Jean Milam ride on the Senior float "Our Pride," voted the most outstanding float in the parade.

The Playshop float, "Scrub 'em Alices," brought laughs as it "floated" down Main.

Sue Chattin is shown on Sponsor's float, "Over the Rainbow."

The Junior float caught the attention of the crowd by two huge bongos. Seated are Rita Finke and Sue Goodman.

Junior Red Cross came trotting down Main with "Fine Coach — Fine Team."

Queen Jeanie, nominated with twelve other beauties and elected by the complete student body for homecoming queen, is crowned by Norman Starks, Alice co-captain. Queen Jeanie is the twelfth queen to reign since the custom began in 1947.

Reigning Over The Festivities Was

"Yea Alices!"

"We're off to a good start."

"Alleluia!"

"Another touchdown!!"

Fun And Excitement Add Memories

Dick Carnahan and Marlene Hollen are receiving their long-awaited class rings. Vickie Herbert and Margaret Burton worked in Pulliam's Jewelry taking orders and keeping the accounts for the junior class rings.

Large crowds of enthusiastic Lincolniters were present at all of the Alice basketball games.

Sock hops were held every Friday night at the Coliseum. Champ Greenlee is the disc jockey for these WAOV Bandstands.

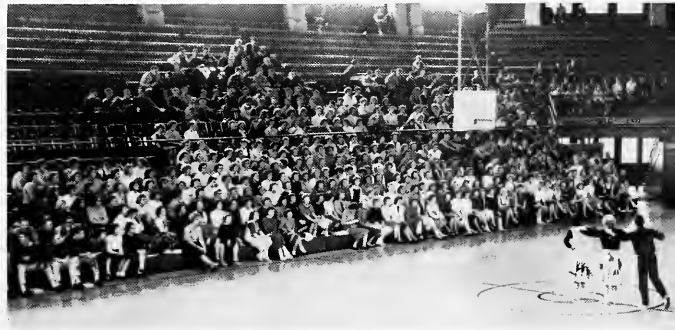

To School Activities.

Senior girls expressed originality through senior skirts.

Line-up of senior cords.

Pep sessions were used to stimulate the school spirit. The cheer-block this year broke all previous Lincoln records in size.

Lincoln Organizations Help

Some members of Junior Red Cross are packing Thanksgiving boxes to take to needy families.

Ummm! Everything looks so delicious!

At Thanksgiving all students of the school are asked to bring canned food which is sent to families in the community. Junior Red Cross purchases fresh fruit, milk, cottage cheese, and meat so that the families may have a complete Thanksgiving dinner.

Before Christmas vacation the various clubs have parties during the homeroom periods.

This package is well wrapped or I'm all thumbs!

The end of a wonderful party!!

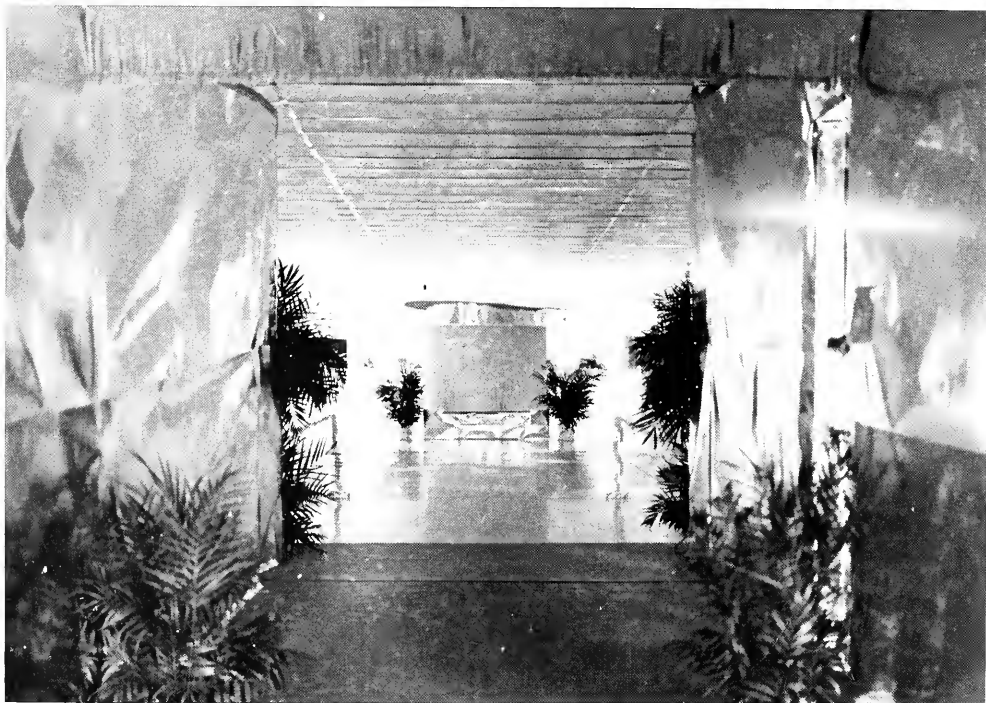

Create Holiday Atmosphere.

Christmas at Lincoln is greeted by joyous faces filled with the ecstasy and anticipation of a young child. The traditional Christmas tree, the artful decorations, and the melodies of the season blend together to make this a Christmas "better than any other." The last week, filled with the many parties, interrupted classes, and carol-singing are remembered by Lincolmites and teachers as they leave school for a two week sabbatical.

Elated Upperclassmen Attend Gala Prom

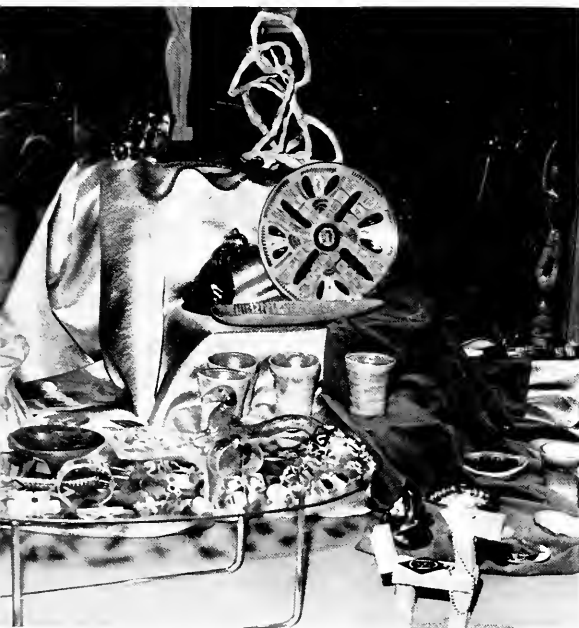

For one night the junior class of 1959 changed the Coliseum into an elaborate nightclub, Club 59. They and their guests, the seniors, spent a memorable evening dancing and enjoying the atmosphere of a nightclub.

Our Parents Visited Lincoln.

Open house was a money-making venture for the Junior Red Cross organization as they sold candy to the visitors.

Open house, the night when parents learn at Lincoln like their children, was enjoyed by many this year. Teachers and parents alike found it a rather interesting experience.

The work of the art students was displayed in the window of the art room.

Miss Mann explains to a couple why their "Johnny" got what he did on his report card.

David Grayson seems to be having fun getting "charged up" in Mr. Finke's physics laboratory.

Awards and Programs Encourage

Below: Girls enrolled in home economics compete for the Betty Crocker Award and title "Homemaker of the Year." The girl making highest score on a general homemaking test is winner in each school. Awards are also given on a state and national basis. Rita Jones, pictured below, was the Lincoln High Homemaker of the Year.

Above: Daughters of the American Revolution each year give a good citizen award to an outstanding senior girl, chosen by members of the senior class and faculty. Girl scoring the highest on a general test represents the county in the state contest. Sue Chattin, above, was chosen for the Good Citizen Award at Lincoln High.

Right: The annual Kiwanis Club award to the basketball player showing the best mental attitude was presented to senior Floyd Stephens. Pictured with him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Stephens, and Don Felnar, president of Vincennes Kiwanis Club.

And Inspire Us To Higher Goals.

"All right kids, pull . . . gently!"

Mr. Tolbert accepts a copy of the $100,000 painting, "My Old Kentucky Home", from James Morris, tenor star.

Remember Hetzel Wetzel?

"Life's a drag;
I need a fag;
I'm an old hag."

The Lincoln High School Concert Band fills the air with "March of the Steel Men."

ACTIVITIES

..... 1960

During Three Productions Per Year

One of the busiest organizations in Lincoln High is the Lincoln Playshop, sponsored by Miss Elwood Miller and Mr. Charles Bridges.

As has been the custom in the past, a three-act play is presented in the fall and in the spring, and a one-act play which is given for a convocation.

There is a lot of fun in presenting a play, but with the fun comes much hard work. Many months of practice, late hours, and stage work go into these productions. Playshop not only combines work with play, but assists its members to develop a feeling of poise and confidence before an audience. Each member tries his best to carry his own responsibilities in making the play a success.

In the spring, persons with a specified number of lines and points of recommendation are initiated into the National Thespian Society. These people are given special awards for their outstanding ability and work in dramatics.

Talents Are Developed

In the spring, persons with a specified number of lines and points of recommendation are initiated into the National Thespian Society, Troup No. 548. Each of these Thespians has also been required to do committee work as well as help with the stage. The scholastic achievements of these outstanding students must be near the top. These people are given special awards for their outstanding ability and work in dramatics.

Above: "Touche!"

Cardi Yosowitz is giving Terry Romine a word association test.

"Well, what's your I.Q.?"

Student Director: Dick Morris.

By Work In Playshop

Right: Terry Romine is very carefully applying make-up to Terry Shoulders.

Putting on a play is a lot of hard work, but with this work comes fun. Everyone is expected to do his own share of committee work. If you would happen to be backstage, you would probably see someone applying make-up, learning lines, biting his fingernails, or transporting properties from one place to another.

Prepare yourself against the "elements" — rain, sleet, and snow.

Boosters Boost Fine Teams.

The Boosters club, under the direction of Miss Helen Polk, helps with many varied activities throughout the school year. They plan rousing pep sessions with skits, serve as guides during Open House, help in the book store, and organize the cheer block for the basketball games.

Their main goal is to raise and maintain the school spirit by boosting the teams at games and in the tournament.

The forty students selected for membership are thought to be people who will best endeavor to build enthusiasm among the student body.

Lincoln's Service Clubs

The main objective of the Junior Red Cross club members is to bring happiness into the lives of unfortunate people.

The members work very hard at the beginning of the school year to raise money. With this money they make favors to send to the Old Folk's Home, the Good Samaritan Hospital and the Knox County Orphanage. Each holiday they send some sort of gift.

Junior Red Cross also sends food baskets to needy people in other parts of the world. The motto of the Junior Red Cross, which clearly explains their activities is "We Serve".

Officers are Jim McGuire, President; Veronica Nasb, Vice-President; Miss Carrie Van Wey, Sponsor; Carolee Reel, Secretary; and Nancy Kahl, Treasurer.

Aid Students and Community.

The distance from junior high school to Lincoln High School is very short, except when you are a freshman. This is where the "Big Sisters" come in; or members of Sponsors. The main responsibility of Sponsors is to serve in aiding the freshman girls become adjusted to high school life. They help them to become better acquainted with the school, members of the faculty, and school functions.

The school year is highlighted for the freshmen by the Sponsors' Christmas Party. Refreshments are served, gifts are exchanged, and Christmas carols are sung.

The club is composed of girls who are chosen by their scholastic ability, citizenship, and leadership. The officers are Sandra Miller, president; Donna Jean Wilkerson, secretary.

Future Homemakers Plan For Tomorrow.

The Future Homemakers of America is a fairly new addition to Lincoln High School. It is under the direction of the Home Economics department.

The purpose of Future Homemakers is to develop mature thinking tastes and skills of home-making. With the modern Home Economics department Lincoln High School has, the girls are given an opportunity to practice their ability. The officers are Joyce George, Secretary; Linda Haywood, Historian; Charlotte Imle, President; Donna Kelso, Vice-President; Judy Scroggins, Treasurer; Mrs. Joy Holmes and Mrs. Jacquelyn Walsworth are the club sponsors.

Future Teachers Plan Careers

The F.T.A. officers are: Trudi Mayo, Secretary; Joan Gilliatt, Treasurer; Miss Risch, Sponsor; Lynda Stewart, Second Vice-President; Docia Sutch, President; and Rosalie Blubaum, First Vice-President.

The Future Teachers of America Club is a forward looking organization made up of young men and women who have chosen teaching as their future profession. Cadets, Future Teacher members, actually assist the regular teachers in the various grade schools throughout the city of Vincennes. In this manner the Cadets receive invaluable experience for their chosen field. By actually taking part in the classroom activities it enables the members to visualize the advantages and disadvantages of teaching. The membership of this club is limited to juniors and seniors.

The Lincoln High School Marching Band is standing at attention on the mall in front of the George Rogers Clark Memorial.

Through Heat and Rain

The Lincoln High School Marching Band is composed of over 100 sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Select freshmen were used as substitutes during the football season.

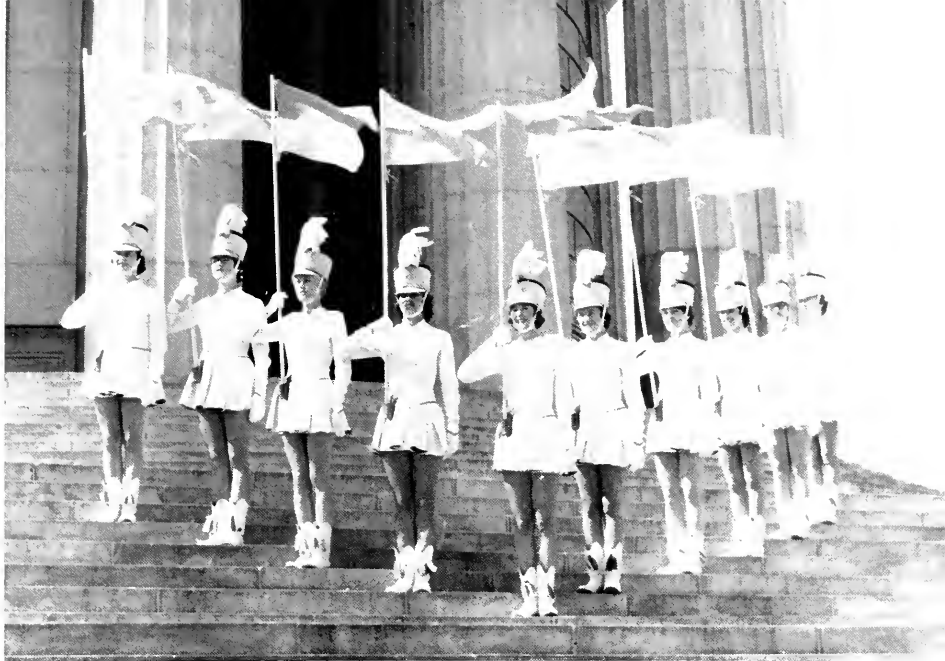

This precision unit represents Lincoln High School in the Watermelon Festival Parade, the Santa Claus Parade, and the Vincennes University Marching Festival.

Practices are held each Tuesday and Thursday evening throughout the football season in preparation for the half-time shows that the band presents at the home football games. The Lincoln High School Homecoming Parade and Festivities are two other events in which the bandmen participate.

Rainbow Beach Parking Lot is the scene of the band's preparation for the Indiana State Fair Contest.

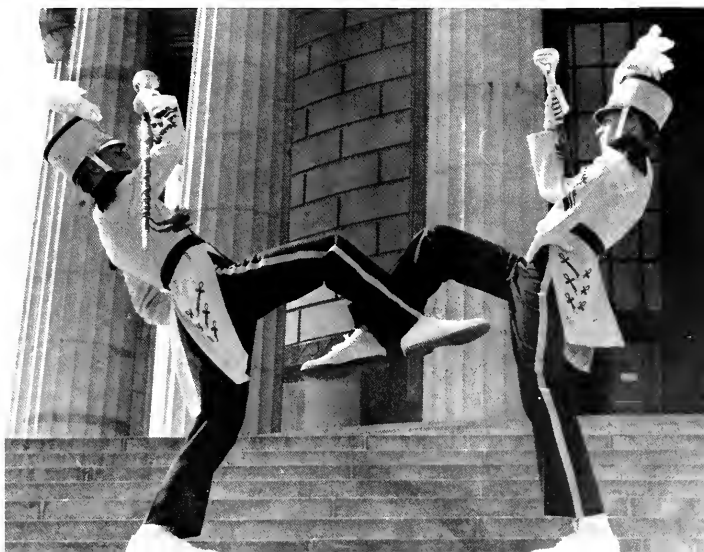

This year the Alice High-steppers ranked fourth in a field of 105 at the contest that includes the best musicians in the state of Indiana.

The Band Marches On

These two high-stepping Lincolinites are drum majors Jack McClure and Gene Finke. They lead the band in parades, assist the directors at practices, and add to the pomp and color of the band.

Concert Band Displays Skill

The Lincoln High School Concert Band is an organization which adds popularity and prestige to the school. This year, they were privileged to present three concerts in a tour extending to St. Marys, West Virginia. This was not only a great honor for the band and its directors, but also to the community of Vincennes.

Mr. Meurer and Mr. Hogue do a very efficient job of directing Lincoln's Concert Band.

Acquired Through Practice

The Lincoln High School Concert Band gave two public concerts during the school year, one in January, the other in May. Both Mr. Meurer and Mr. Hogue assist in the preparation for the concerts and help to explain the band's success.

The 1959-1960 band officers are Joseph Fischer, President; Harold Wilcher, Vice-President; Donna Gray, Secretary; and Robert VanHook, Treasurer.

Alice Nine Strives Determinedly

Tommy Plain, understudy of Dad T. L. Plain, intently watches the team in action as the Alices roll over Evansville North. In his two years of baseball coaching at Lincoln, he has won the S.I.A.C. championship once. The many hours of practice of the hard working Alice team paid off but three times this year during their rough fifteen game schedule.

The 1959 Alice golf team won none of twelve meets. Letters were awarded to players who participated in one-half of the meets. These lettermen were Frank Landrey, Dale Robinson, Morris Medley, Hal Witman, and John Kuhn. Mr. Fred Alwood has been coaching Alice golf teams for four years. Even though little emphasis has been placed on the achievements of Coach Alwood and his golfers, this sport is an integral part of the athletic program of Lincoln High.

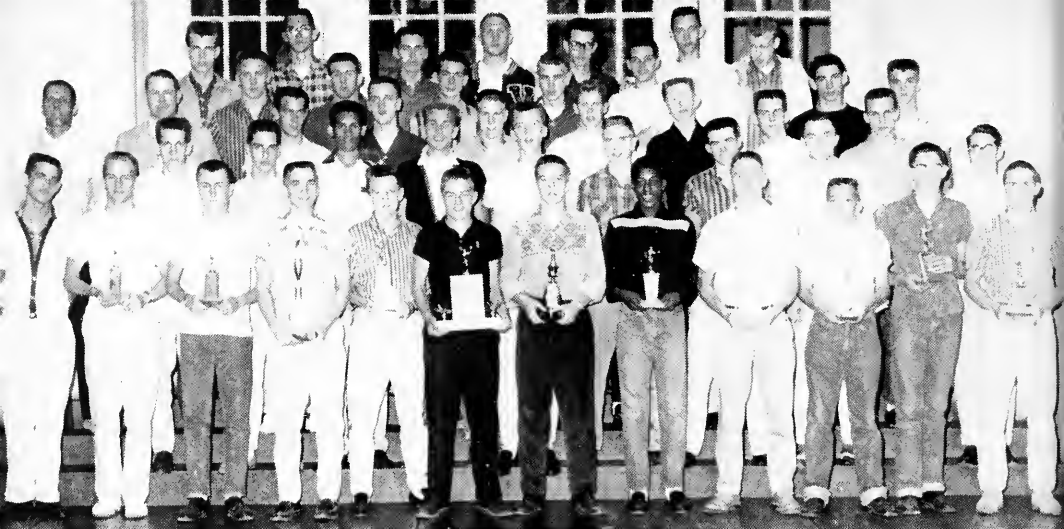

Lincoln's senior linksmen: Mick McGlone, Frank Landrey, Art Robinson, and Coach Fred Alwood.

Alice Track Men Finish Well

Jack Godfrey, Tom Mier, Dave Milligan, Dave Hendrixson, and LeRoy Stephens were without a doubt the greatest asset to the Alice track team. Of the total fourteen trophies won by the thinlies, eight were given to these five freshman 880 relay men.

Coaches Ray Mills and Paul East turned in another fine track team record. Working hard during the season, they strove for one goal, The Old Post Relays. Near the end of the season the boys were ready. We won over a good Evansville North team by a slim margin. It was finally decided on the last event of the evening by the freshman low hurdles relay. Two of the Alice cindermen, Joe Mitchell, miler, and David Van Meter, high jumper, were qualified for the regionals.

Harriers Finish With Good Record

"On your mark! Get set! Go!" cries the starter.

Paul East, in his first year of coaching Cross Country, was very successful. With a team loaded with juniors, he made his way through a tough schedule. The Harriers ran in five dual meets, one triangle meet, one quadrangle meet, the thirty team Southport Invitational, in which big Jim Bagby, the state cross country champion from little Chesterton, won with a time of ten minutes, sixteen seconds. For this feat he received two gold medals and two trophies. Placing a strong fourth in the nineteen team S.I.A.C. meet and sixth in the twenty-six team sectional, the Alice thinlies showed great promise for next year. Coach East has constantly worked hard to improve his team.

And Promising Freshman Team

Alice thinly, Bob Fox, is closely pursued to the finish line by Terry Romine.

The 1959 cross country season brought on two distinct changes over any past season. First, the team acquired a new coach, Paul East; and second, they received a new team, the freshman harriers. These boys, under the guidance and leadership of Coach East, trained hard all season. Beginning August 15, the freshmen began their three-month period of toil and sweat. They were permitted to run in only one meet which they lost to the Edwardsport varsity team. The freshman harriers ran several relays against their own varsity against which they showed great promise for the future.

Successful Season Concluded

Alice Reserves are waiting for their turn to action.

Vincennes Alice football team completed another successful year under the guidance of Coach Ray Mills. Breaking several Alice football records, including the attendance record, the varsity squad fought their way to state recognition. Piloted by senior quarterback Larry Donovan, the Alices went through a ten game schedule with eight victories against only two losses. The last game, deciding the S.I.A.C championship, went to Evansville Memorial Tigers 20-19. Memorial, who was ranked fifth in the state, scored all of their points in the first quarter. The mighty Alices fought gamely, but lost their chances for victory on the extra points.

Alice coaches, Frank Conrad, Lyman Lance, Oscar Finke, Head Coach Ray Mills, and Tom Deem, seem to have good reason to smile. With newly acquired coaches Lyman Lance and Tom Deem, the Alices surprised all the critics with their success. Working hard all summer, the coaches, led by Ray Mills, built together a team that placed second in the Southern Indiana Athletic Conference.

And Freshmen Players

Coaches Oscar Finke and Frank Conrad are explaining the purpose of the helmet to little Alice star halfback Dick Miller.

It's the end of another football season and it looks like Coaches Oscar Finke and Frank Conrad have done it again. Yes, they have established another fine freshman team of future Alices. The midgets of green and white ran through a tough five game schedule undefeated. Led by Hershal Biehl, the frosh signal caller, the mighty Alices rolled over such teams as Princeton, Linton, Sullivan, Boonville, and Bloomington.

Coach Mills congratulates SENTINEL trophy winners Bill Miller, Most Valuable Senior; Garry Walker, Lineman of the Year; and Larry Donovan, Back of the Year. SENTINEL subscribers voted for the players of the year.

Rest On Laurels Worthily Won

'Round and 'round she goes and . . . oops! an incompleated pass by Evansville Central.

Whoopee! The mighty Alices just scored another six-pointer.

Ron McNeece heartily believes in the "pause that refreshes."

Cheer Leaders Revive School Spirit

The varsity cheer leaders are John Kuhn, Jeff Niemann, Carolyn Phelps, and Jean Threlkeld. They were elected by the student body from a group that was screened by the faculty. Miss Helen Polk is the sponsor for the yell leaders. Many hours of practice are required in order that these cheer leaders may be a skilled and well co-ordinated group.

And Encourage Fans To Yell.

Reserve Cheer Leaders

Linda Haywood, Barbara Lewis, Gwen Sampson, and Nancy Stephens were the "B" Team cheer leaders. This is the first time that Lincoln High School has had cheer leaders for this team.

Freshman Cheer Leaders

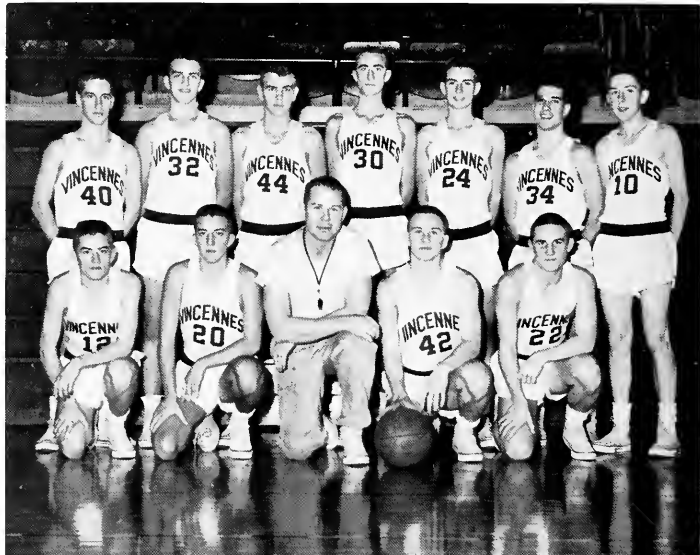

Patty Joyce and Beverly Donovan are yell leaders for the freshman team.

Alice Basketball Teams

Display Sportsmanship And Fine Playing

The hard-working varsity coach of the Vincennes Alices, Keith Showalter.

This was another fine year for the Alice Varsity. They completed one of the toughest schedules in the state with high respect. After the game with Madison, which was ranked second in the state, the Alices were rated as high as sixth. They showed great promise when they lost to fifth ranked Jasper by three points, and they lead most of the way in the game with fourth-ranked Bloomington and the Madison contest. They finished the season with an 11 to 9 record.

The B-Team, under the guidance of Paul East for the third straight year, had an average season, finishing with an 8 and 9 record. Made up mostly with sophomores, they were aided by four freshmen and four juniors.

To Upcoming Freshmen

The Alice freshmen played a larger schedule than both the varsity and B teams. In twenty-two games, they won fifteen and lost only seven. They suffered slightly at the end of the season as a result of the loss of Kenneth Tromley, Herschel Biehl, Larry Cobb, Rick Purnell, and Russell Thorne to the reserve team.

Lyman Lance, pictured with Kenneth Tromley, had good material and used his men to the best advantage during his first year as coach at Lincoln High.

These four freshman boys were moved up to the B-Team midway through the season. They are, first row: Russell Thorne and Larry Cobb. Second Row: Rick Purnell and Herschel Biehl.

Through Many Action-Filled Plays,

Dale Biehl charges into Craig Weber in the Central Catholic game.

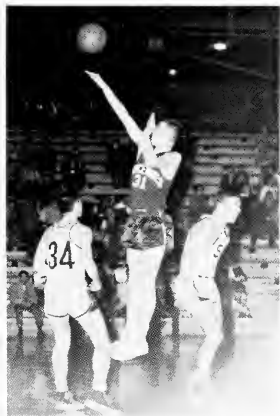

Darwin Lindsey looks on as Kenny Tromley hits a crisp shot.

Freshman forward Herschel Biehl tosses up 2 more points in the Huntingburg game.

Steve Roseman runs in for the rebound as Jim Cauraghn guns again.

B-Team forward Bob Green faked his man and popped in another Alice field goal.

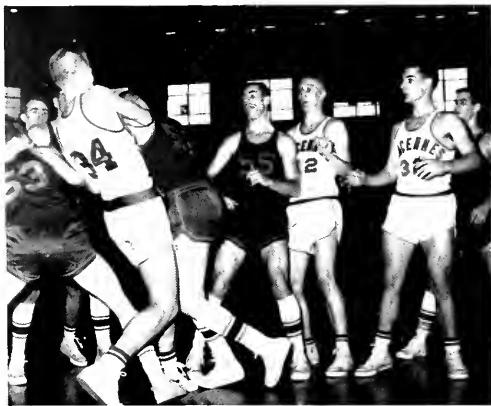

High-jumping Norman Starks steals the ball from Garfield's Fuaqua.

And In Tournament Pressure

Ron Russell leaps to snare another Alice rebound.

Dale Biehl ties up Decker's Larry Parker in the semi-final game of the sectional.

Norman Starks positions himself for a rebound as Wayne Showalter tosses in another bucket.

Down goes one more strand of net to victorious Coach Keith Showalter.

Rejoicing Alices, after winning sectional title, had a short-lasting satisfaction as they were defeated by regional champ Carisle in the afternoon game at Huntingburg.

Through Careful Preparation

The hard-working Alice team enjoys a quick breather between quarters.

I.H.S.A.A. officials take time for a brief chat before the game.

All eyes are focused on Coach Shwalter during the half-time intermission.

SENIORS

Competent Leaders

Here are the hard working officers of the senior class. Left to Right: Joan Gilliatt, Treasurer; Jean Milam, Secretary; Terry Allen, Vice-President; and Larry Donovan, President.

*We are the seniors of Lincoln High.
To all of our friends we say good-by.
At times we've worked,
At times we've played.
And we will remember the friends we've made.
So as we leave, we will make this vow:
To remember you always
Just as you are now.*

JUNIORS

Class of 1961 Arrives

We entered the realm of the upper-classmen and were suddenly engrossed in new, and exciting activities. Of course, the most thrilling of these was all the wonderful preparations for the Junior-Senior Prom. Our prom was quite unique this year in that it was on Friday, the thirteenth of May.

Juniors Worked To Boost Treasury

"Popcorn anyone?" asks Patti Means, junior salesman, as she sells a bag to Dennis Owens and Bob Ross.

"Step right up, we've enough for all!" is the cry at half-time.

"Gee, I hope I have the right change, Miss Rich," says Diane Little, as she turns in her money after selling.

All Prepare Through Individual Interests

Braving the summer heat, the band practices for the State Fair.

"Aw, come on, Harold; physics isn't that boring."

"Well, Mr. Tolbert, it said PUSH."

"Whew! Just what we needed . . . a thirty-second break."

Yes, it's another of those seventy-five minute sleep periods.

Competent Administrators Supervise

Responsible members of the community comprise the Vincennes City School Board which is responsible for the many important decisions affecting all our students.

Mr. Glen Bretz, in his second year as Superintendent of the Vincennes Public Schools, has made friends of all Lincoln High students.

The Vincennes City School Board. Seated: Mr. Lynn Piper, Mr. Joseph Yosowitz, Treasurer; Mr. Richard Bauer, Mr.

Glen Allen, President. Standing: Mr. Ross Flummerfelt, Secretary; Mr. Glen Bretz, Superintendent.

Education of Vincennes' Youth

Clarence Tolbert, principal of Lincoln High School, concentrates intently upon the work which makes his the most responsible position in Lincoln High School.

The school year, 1959-1960, has been a year of new experiences for Clarence Tolbert in his first year at the post of principal. The enrollment of Lincoln swelled over the one-thousand mark, and new problems arose, each to be solved by the new principal with the cooperation of his staff of educators.

Miss Doris Yungmans is perhaps one of the busiest of the Lincoln High personnel. Friendly assistance is known to all as her byword.

Counselors Advise Students

Mr. Decker, Dean of Boys and Advisor

This is the first year that Lincoln High School has employed two full-time counselors. Counseling has become a very important part in the psychological adjustment of high school students. These competent advisors are on duty at all times to help any student who has a problem and to administer the high school testing programs.
